Give Santa a Helping Hand

Start the Holidays' Off By Giving Back

The Toys for Tots program was originally started by the Marine Corps in 1947 to give toys to children who's families could not afford them.

Please Help UH Hilo this year be part of this incredible program to give back to our local community. And bring the Holiday spirit to our island Children!

This years goal for Hawaii is to reach 40,000 toys.

Enough for about one per child in need.

Last year come December 20th, the Toys for Tots for the state of Hawaii was about 3,000 Toys short. This year due to the economy the number could be even lower. Lets help Santa Out by Donating loose change you have laying around or small new child friendly toys.

There is a change jar located at each desk, please drop your donations at your hall between now and Dec. 5th!

Students from UH Hilo Walked a Mile in Her Shoes this week to help spread the word about domestic violence. (above picture of two students in Heals) A special thanks to the UH Hilo Athletes for showing up in force and showing what grace you have on and off the field!

NASA Rovers were shown by UH Hilo students on Saturday to the community., up at the Astronomy center.

DO NOT FORGET

There are NO CLASSES on Thursday, November 27th and Friday, November 28th, in recognition of Thanksgiving.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Useful conversation topics for this holiday season

It is always best to stay away from the Fabulous five conversation no no's: Politics, money, Religion, weight, and of course personal relationships. Yes these topics cause endless amounts of debate and a memorable holiday, it is unclear if the memory will be good and if you will get any leftovers after ruining the meal.

But what to talk about, the weather gets old and ageing is not on a good list either. One idea for the is holiday season is just to sit back and listen to others. Just spend the time enjoying what the others have to say! Maybe it is not about the talking after all.

For the next issue we would like to put in Holiday Horror stories, Please email your worst stores laced with humor to ArounddaHouse@yahoo.com!!

SPRING HOUSING REMINDER

THANKSGIVING

You don't have to do this, we'll get a turkey for you.

Thanksgiving is Thursday, November 27th. Some students will be celebrating with their families, but residents who stay on campus can have a great holiday dinner too! Resident Life Programming and UHSSA have teamed up to give you a delicious turkey dinner.

The dinner will be held in the Hale Kehau Dining Hall on November 27th. Various UH Hilo faculty, including Professors, will be serving the food.

The Search is Still On! Who will win?

Thanksgiving Celebration on November 20th, 11:30am-1:30pm in the Student Lounge.

This is the third in the LCC Campus Idol series.

Stop by the Student Activities Office AD-223B and sign-up to be a contestant

Entries will be accepted from tell November 20th at 10:30am.
