

How to Connect GPS Unit to a PC

Make sure the GPS cable is plugged into the serial port of the computer. This particular unit uses a serial cable. Other GPS units may use a USB cable instead.

Plug the other end of the cable into the back of the GPS unit as shown below, matching the direction of the groove on the cable plug and the unit outlet port.

