

“The Shootings at Columbine High School” Case Study

Names:

What problems contributed to the confusion in dealing with the situation at Columbine? Note whether each problem you cite is an IGR problem, a communications problem, a public management problem, or something else.

What changes would you recommend in order to insure that there is less confusion and a quicker response to incidents like this one?